

Cyril Owiso Oyuga

Cyril is the Deputy Director, Research, Monitoring and Evaluation Division at KICD. He holds a Masters from Leeds University in Mathematical Education, Statistics and Research. He has an advanced diploma from Leeds University in Mathematical Education and B. ED: Mathematics and Economics from Kenyatta University.

He is a PhD candidate in Research and Evaluation. He has attended several workshops and seminars at the Kenya School of Government. He has attended a six-month training programme on Strategic Leadership Development at the Kenya School of Government.

Prior to joining KICD, he has lectured at Kenya Institute of Management and at Kenya Teacher Training College. He has also undertaken several training needs assessment for the British Council and the Ministry of East African Cooperation.