

Dr. Obudho Omondi

He is the Deputy Director in charge of TIVET Division. He holds a PhD in Building Engineering from Politecnico di Milano, Italy; Master of Philosophy in Technology Education (Building Construction Option), and Bachelor of Education (Technology) both from Moi University.

He is a lead expert with National Environmental Management Authority (NEMA) and a member of the Environmental Institution of Kenya. He is also a Green Star Accredited Professional.

Prior to joining KICD, he served as the Dean Faculty of Engineering and Technology at Technical university of Mombasa. He has also lectured at Meru College of Technology (Presently Meru University) in Meru County and was a teacher at Menyanya High School in Nyamira County.