

Dr. Reuben Nthamburi

Dr. Nthamburi is the Deputy Director Basic Education at KICD. He holds PhD in Education (Educational Communication and Technology) from Moi University, Masters in Administration, Curriculum studies and planning- University of Nairobi. He has a B.Ed in Science, Mathematics and Geography- Egerton University.

He has attended several professional courses in Kenya on corporate governance, strategic Leadership, project management, and result oriented management program. Outside Kenya he has participated in short courses such as e-Learning Facilitators, Namibia, Digital Content Design and Development (South Africa), Application of Multimedia Technology for E- Education (Macromedia flash, Fireworks Dream weaver Digital video and Photography)- JAPAN.

Prior to joining KICD, he was the Assistant Dean in charge of Curriculum at Meru Teachers College and is also a published author.