FOREWORD

The Government of Kenya (GoK) is committed to ensuring that policy objectives for Education, Training and Research meet the aspirations of the Constitution of Kenya 2010, the Kenya Vision 2030, National Curriculum Policy 2018, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the regional and global conventions to which Kenya is a signatory. Towards achieving the mission of Basic Education, the Ministry of Education (MoE) has successfully and progressively rolled out the implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) at Pre-Primary, Primary and Junior School levels.

The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) reviewed the curriculum and rationalised the number of learning areas in 2024. The review and rationalisation process was informed by several factors, among them, the recommendations of the Presidential Working Party on Education Reforms (PWPER) and reports of the continuous curriculum monitoring and evaluation activities.

The reviewed curriculum designs build on competencies attained earlier by learners. The designs prepare the learner for smooth transition to the next level. The designs will also afford the learner opportunities for developing requisite competencies and enable them to interact with other people and the environment around them.

The key components of the curriculum designs include the National Goals of Education, the essence statement, general and specific learning outcomes as well as the strands and sub strands. Suggested learning experiences, key inquiry questions, core competencies, Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs), values and assessment rubrics are also outlined in the curriculum designs.

It is expected that all Government agencies and other stakeholders in Education will use the designs to plan for the effective and efficient implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum.

Thank you.

HON. EZEKIEL OMBAKI MACHOGU, CBS

CABINET SECRETARY,

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

PREFACE

The Ministry of Education (MoE) rolled out the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC), nationally in 2019, following a national convention in 2017 where the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (BECF) was adopted by stakeholders and a national pilot of the curriculum in the Early Years of Education (EYE) in 2018. According to the UNESCO IBE requirements, a curriculum should be reviewed every five years. So, the review of CBC was due from 2023. In view of this, the reviewed curriculum designs will enhance the implementation of CBC since it corporates the lessons learnt from the implementation of CBC so far.

Consistent periodical review of the curriculum is also critical in the realisation of the Vision and Mission of the on-going curriculum reforms as enshrined in the Sessional Paper No. I of 2019 whose title is: Towards Realizing Quality, Relevant and Inclusive Education and Training for Sustainable Development in Kenya. The Sessional Paper explains the shift from a content-focused curriculum to a focus on producing an engaged, empowered and ethical citizen.

Therefore, the reviewed curriculum designs will facilitate the inculcation of core competencies in CBC, which are identified as: communication and collaboration, critical thinking and problem solving, creativity and imagination, citizenship, digital literacy, learning to learn and self-efficacy.

The curriculum designs provide suggestions for interactive and differentiated learning experiences linked to the various strands and sub strands and other aspects of the CBC. The designs also outline suggested learning resources and varied assessment techniques. It is expected that the use of these designs will lead to enhanced learning outcomes at various levels, prepare the learner for smooth transition to subsequent grades and make learning enjoyable.

The MoE requests all stakeholders to keep giving feedback on the curriculum designs to inform the review during the next cycle.

Thank you.

DR. BELIO R. KIPSANG, CBS

PRINCIPAL SECRETARY STATE DEPARTMENT FOR

EARLY LEARNING AND BASIC EDUCATION

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) Act Number 4 of 2013 (Revised 2019) mandates the Institute to develop and review curricula and curriculum support materials for basic and tertiary education and training. The curriculum development process is guided by research, international best practices as well as stakeholder engagement. The Institute conceptualised the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) in consultation with the Ministry of Education and other stakeholders. According to the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (KICD, 2017) the conceptualisation of CBC was informed by 21st Century learning needs, the Constitution of Kenya 2010, the Kenya Vision 2030, the East African Community Protocol, the International Bureau of Education (IBE) Guidelines and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

KICD is funded by the Kenya Government to discharge its mandate. The institute also receives support from development partners targeting specific programmes. The reviewed curriculum designs were developed with the support of the World Bank through the Kenya Primary Education Equity in Learning Programme (KPEELP) - a project coordinated by MoE. KICD wishes to most sincerely thank the Government of Kenya, through the MoE and other development partners. More specifically, KICD appreciates the Cabinet Secretary - MoE and the Principal Secretary - State Department of Basic Education,

Additionally, the Institute expresses gratitude to all the KICD staff members, teachers, university lecturers, MoE staff, Semi-Autonomous Government Agencies (SAGAs) and representatives of various stakeholders; among others, for their contributions to the development of the reviewed curriculum designs. Finally, KICD acknowledges the Chief Executive Officers of the Teachers Service Commission (TSC) and the Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC) as well as the KICD Council for supporting the curriculum review process.

May God bless all the individuals and respective institutions who in one way or another supported the curriculum review process. Indeed, these designs will effectively guide the implementation of the CBC at Primary level, thereby preparing the learner to transition to the Junior School.

Best wishes to all learners and curriculum implementers.

NATIONAL GOALS OF EDUCATION

1. Foster nationalism, patriotism, and promote national unity

Kenya's people belong to different communities, races and religions and should be able to live and interact as one people. Education should enable the learner acquire a sense of nationhood and patriotism. It should also promote peace and mutual respect for harmonious co-existence.

2. Promote social, economic, technological and industrial needs for national development

Education should prepare the learner to play an effective and productive role in the nation.

a) Social Needs

Education should instill social and adaptive skills in the learner for effective participation in community and national development.

b) Economic Needs

Education should prepare a learner with requisite competences that support a modern and independent growing economy. This should translate into high standards of living for every individual.

c) Technological and Industrial Needs

Education should provide the learner with necessary competences for technological and industrial development in tandem with changing global trends.

3. Promote individual development and self-fulfillment

Education should provide opportunities for the learner to develop to the fullest potential. This includes development of one's interests, talents and character for positive contribution to the society.

4 Promote sound moral and religious values

Education should promote acquisition of national values as enshrined in the Constitution. It should be geared towards developing a self-disciplined and ethical citizen with sound moral and religious values.

5. Promote social equity and responsibility

Education should promote social equity and responsibility. It should provide inclusive and equitable access to quality and differentiated education; including learners with special educational needs and disabilities. Education should also provide the learner with opportunities for shared responsibility and accountability through service learning.

6. Promote respect for and development of Kenya's rich and varied cultures

Education should instill in the learner appreciation of Kenya's rich and diverse cultural heritage. The learner should value own and respect other people's culture as well as embrace positive cultural practices in a dynamic society.

7. Promote international consciousness and foster positive attitudes towards other nations

Kenya is part of the interdependent network of diverse peoples and nations. Education should therefore enable the learner to respect, appreciate and participate in the opportunities within the international community. Education should also facilitate the learner to operate within the international community with full knowledge of the obligations, responsibilities, rights and benefits that this membership entails.

8. Good health and environmental protection

Education should inculcate in the learner the value of physical and psychological well-being for self and others. It should promote environmental preservation and conservation, including animal welfare for sustainable development.

STRAND 1.0: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

THEME 1: (Strand	GREETINGS AND I Sub Strand	NTRODUCTIONS Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.1 Phonological Awareness: Arabic Alphabet (2 sessions) • Letters/syllables • Arabic characters • Words	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) form words using sounds, letters and syllables to form words for comprehension, b) pronounce words related to greetings and introductions correctly, c) develop interest in learning the Arabic alphabet.	 The learner is guided to: work with peers to match sounds to letters to form syllables, combine syllables to syllables to form meaningful words, pronounce words with sound baa, mim, lam, dal from a given display in pairs, imitate using the pronouns hadaa, hadhihi, practise using Arabic greetings such as assalamu-alaikum, keifhaluka/halaki, collaborate with peers to role-play formal and informal greetings. 	1. Why do we greet one another? 2. How do letters differ from sounds?

- Communication and collaboration: This is developed as the learner builds on their interaction skills by practising using Arabic greetings such as assalamu-alaikum, keif-haluka/halaki.
- Self-efficacy: This is promoted as the learner sharpens their conversational skills when collaborating with peers to role-play formal and informal greetings.

Values:

Respect: This is enhanced as the learner appreciates the efforts made by peers when collaborating to role play formal and informal greetings.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Cultural awareness is promoted as the learner appreciates and practices various formal and informal greetings used among various people at different times.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of greetings and introductions to similar concepts as taught in English.

1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.2 Phonological Awareness: Pronunciation (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building - Nuclear family • Pronouncing sounds	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify nuclear family members for information, b) pronounce the target sounds correctly, c) appreciate the role of immediate family members for peaceful coexistence.	 The learner is guided to: work jointly to identify nuclear family members from a given display, practice pronouncing words containing sounds of nuun, raa, saad, faa, with correct articulation in groups, take turns to practise using the pronouns of huwa and hiya orally, talk about their immediate family members in groups. 	Why is it good to pronounce words correctly?

- Learning to learn: This is enhanced as the learner builds on their learning experiences when talking about their immediate family members in groups.
- Social justice: This is enhanced as the learner accords others an equal opportunity when taking turns to practise using the pronouns of huwa and hiya orally.

Values:

Integrity: This is promoted as the learner displays honesty while sharing information when talking about their immediate family members in groups.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Social cohesion: This is promoted as the learner appreciates the various family members and the role they play in promoting a sense of belonging and coexistence.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of family to similar concepts as covered in Social Studies.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.3 Selective Listening (2 sessions) Pronunciation Colours Vocabulary building- classroom items	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) pronounce words from an oral text correctly, b) describe objects in a classroom based on colour for comprehension, c) appreciate items and rooms found at school.	 The learner is guided to: listen to audio recordings on items found in school and articulate target sounds and words correctly, collaborate with peers to identify common colours, chant a singing game involving different colours, work jointly to describe classroom objects based on colour, participate in conversations to describe classroom items in groups. 	Why is it good to listen keenly?

- Digital Literacy: This is enhanced as the learner interacts with digital content when listening to audio recordings on items found in school and articulate target sounds and words correctly.
- Creativity and imagination: This is promoted as the learner embraces ideas that ignite creativity when chanting a singing game involving different colours.

Values:

Respect: This is enhanced as the learner appreciates diverse opinions from peers while participating in conversations to describe classroom items.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Environmental awareness: This is addressed as the learner discusses various classroom items and rooms in the schools environment.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of colour with similar concepts as taught in Creative Arts.

THEME 4:TI	THEME 4:TIME
Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.4 Phonological Awareness: Articulation (2 sessions) • Pronunciation • Responding to questions • Vocabulary building	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) articulate words on parts of the day using accurate sequence, b) respond to questions on activities done at different parts of the day, c) appreciate the essence of time management for lifelong learning.	 The learner is guided to: listen to an audio presentation on various greetings used at different times of the day (e.g. Morning-Good morning, Afternoon-Good afternoon, Evening-Good evening), collaborate with peers to participate in singing games describing the times of the day in correct sequence, work jointly to match daily activities to the specific time of the day they happen, organize activities on sentence strips in the order in which they occur in a day, take turns to dramatize activities carried out at different times of the day. 	 Why are some activities carried out only at specific times of the? How does pronunciation affect meaning of texts?

- Creativity and imagination: This is enhanced as the learner engages in new ways of participating in singing games describing the times of the day in correct sequence.
- Critical thinking and problem solving: This is enhanced as the learner explores views when matching activities to the specific time of the day when they happen

Values:

Respect: This is promoted as learner shows positive regard for others when taking turns to dramatize activities carried out at different times of the day.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Citizenship: This is promoted as learners are exposed to time management skills when talking about different times of the day and activities to be done at specific times.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to link the concept on time to their learning of similar concepts in Mathematics.

THEME 5: FUN AND ENJOYMENT
Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.5 Attentive Listening (2 sessions) • Specific details • Making judgement on texts	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify specific details from a text for comprehension, b) describe personal opinions on hobbies and interests, c) appreciate the importance of listening keenly for lifelong learning.	 The learner is guided to: listen attentively to an audio recording about hobbies and interests, work collaboratively to pick out specific hobbies mentioned in the recording, take turns to talk about their personal hobbies and interests (Begin; in my free time I like), work jointly to role play their hobbies and interests, peer review each other's presentation for constructive feedback. 	How do you spend your free time?

- Communication and collaboration: This is promoted as the learner contributes engagingly to the discussion as they take turns to talk about their personal hobbies and interests.
- Creativity and imagination: This is enhanced as the learner embraces creative ideas when roleplaying their hobbies and interests.

Values:

- Integrity: This is promoted as the learner accommodates diverse opinions when peer reviewing other's presentation for constructive feedback.
- Unity: This is promoted as the learner cooperates with peers to pick out specific hobbies mentioned in the recording.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Self-awareness: This is promoted as learner appreciates what others are able to do as hobbies and interests during their discussions and role plays.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of hobbies and interests to their learning of various uses of leisure time as taught in Religious Studies.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.6 Imitative Speaking (2 sessions) • Responding to questions • Simple sentences	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) respond to simple questions correctly, b) compose simple sentences using acquired vocabulary, c) appreciate imitative speaking as a strategy to language learning.	 The learner is guided to: listen to a recording on meals from a digital device and answer the questions in groups, work jointly to identify names of various foods and drinks from pictures, make a vocabulary bank of vocabulary related to foods and drinks, work collaboratively to categorize the different meals into the various times they could be taken (e.g. for breakfast, lunch, dinner/supper) use the acquired vocabulary to make sentences using correct pronunciation, conduct a conversation in pairs using vocabularies related to different mealtimes. 	1. Why do we take meals? 2. How does vocabulary help in the language learning?

- Digital literacy: This is promoted as the learner interacts with digital content when listening to a recording on meals from a digital device and answers the questions in groups
- Self-efficacy: This is promoted as the learner exhibits organization skills when categorizing the different meals into the various times they could be taken.

Values:

Unity: This is promoted as the learner displays a team spirit while working jointly to identify names of various foods and drinks from pictures.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Food security: This is promoted as the learners interact with information on various foods in their environment and times when the meals are preferably taken.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on foods and drinks to their learning of similar concepts in Agriculture.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.7 Imitative Speaking: Fluency (2 sessions) Pronunciation Intonation Responding to instructions	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) use appropriate pronunciation and intonation to describe the parts of the body for information, b) respond to given instructions correctly, c) advocate for good hygiene practices for lifelong learning.	 The learner is guided to: work jointly to practice pronouncing selected words with sound qaf, taa, haa, siin, daa, name parts of the body and ask simple questions in groups, collaborate to sing a song on locating the parts of their body and their function, play a language game involving listening to simple instructions on functions of the parts of the body and respond to the instructions given. 	1. How do you take care of your body? 2. Why is pronunciation and intonation key in deriving text meaning?

- Communication and collaboration: This is promoted as the learner contributes actively when playing a language game involving listening to simple instructions on functions of the parts of the body and responding to the instructions given.
- Self-efficacy: This is enhanced as the learner exhibits audience awareness skills when singing a song on locating the parts of the body and their function.

Values:

Respect: This is promoted as the learner shows positive regard for self and others while working in groups to name parts of the body and ask simple questions.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Health promotion issues: These are promoted as the learner gets to appreciate the parts of the body and the functions they play for healthy body coordination.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on pronunciation and intonation for fluency to their learning in English.

THEME 8: W	THEME 8: WEATHER AND ENVIRONMENT
Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.8 Conversational Skills (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building • Turn taking • Conversation etiquette	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) describe weather patterns for information, b) apply appropriate turn taking and etiquette in a discussion, c) appreciate the role of conversational skills for effective communication.	 Work jointly to describe different weather patterns (e.g. sunny, rainy, windy, cold), collaborate to play a language game where one uses non-verbal cues to describe a weather pattern and others try to guess which one it is, role play a dialogue using turn taking skills to describe the weather patterns, watch a video recording of a discussion illustrating etiquette in conversations, conduct singing games on various weather patterns with peers. 	1. How can we take care of ourselves in different weather conditions? 2. How can we ensure etiquette when holding conversations?

- Communication and collaboration: This is promoted as the learner engages actively when playing a language game where one uses non-verbal cues to describe a weather pattern and others try to guess which one it is.
- Citizenship: This is enhanced as the learner engages in constructive dialogue when working jointly to describe different weather patterns.

Values:

- Peace: This is promoted as the learner displays tolerance with peers when conducting singing games on various weather patterns.
- Responsibility: This is promoted as the learner diligently engages in assigned roles when role playing a dialogue using turn taking skills to describe the weather patterns.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Environmental awareness: This is promoted as the learner appreciates the weather and interacts with content on weather and the environment.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept about turn taking and conversational etiquette to their learning in English and Kiswahili.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.9 Imitative Speaking (2 sessions) Vocabulary building: objects in the surrounding Position of objects-in, on, under, behind	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) recognise objects in the environment for comprehension, b) describe positions of objects in the environment for comprehension, c) appreciate vocabulary building for language acquisition.	 Work jointly to identify objects found in their class or immediate environment, listen to a video presentation on common items in the classroom attentively and repeat what the presenter is saying correctly, describe the position of one object in relation to another using words like in, on, under, behind, make sentences using vocabularies related to locating items in the classroom (e.g., where is the book?) work jointly to play the 'Treasure Hunt' game to locate positions of objects in the surrounding. 	1. How can you improve your speaking skill? 2. Why is the position of objects key in description?

- Learning to learn: This is promoted as the learner is motivated to learn continuously when working jointly to identify objects found in their class or immediate environment.
- Digital literacy: This is promoted as the learner listens to video presentation on common items in the classroom attentively and repeats what the presenter is saying.

Values:

- Respect: This is nurtured as the learner shows positive regard for self and others while working jointly to demonstrate positions of objects at different locations.
- Social Justice: This is promoted as the learner accords equal opportunities to peers when playing the Treasure Hunt game to locate positions of objects in the surrounding

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Environmental awareness: This is promoted as the learner interacts with various objects in their class and immediate surrounding while describing their positions in relation to others.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of locating positions of objects to their learning of similar concepts in English.

STRAND 2.0: READING

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
2.0 Reading	2.1 Guided Reading: Fluency (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building: Greetings and introductions	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) articulate target Arabic words correctly, b) read greetings and introduction phrases correctly for information, c) appreciate the value of introductions and greetings in maintaining relationships.	 The learner is guided to: read Arabic words with baa, mim, lam and daal sound from a given display, read simple words and phrases on greetings depicting different times of the day, work jointly with peers to role play self-introduction (e.g. Hello, How are you, my name is), team up to identify various ways of introducing self. 	1. Why are greetings important? 2. How can one ensure that they speak Arabic fluently?

- Self-efficacy: This is nurtured as the learner shows defining interpersonal skills when working jointly with peers to role play self-introduction.
- Learning to learn: This is promoted as the learner engages in collective learning as they read Arabic words with baa, mim, lam and daal sound.

Values:

- Responsibility: This is promoted as the learner cooperates with peers to identify various ways of introducing self.
- Love: This is nurtured as the learner portrays a caring attitude when working jointly with peers to role play self-introduction

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Social Cohesion: This is promoted as the learner gets to know how to initiate relationships with peers through greetings and self-introduction for peaceful co-existence.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of greetings and introductions to their learning of similar concepts in English.

THEME 2: FAMILY
Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
2.0 Reading	2.2 Reading Aloud (2 sessions) Simple sentences Fluency	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) use simple strategies to read target words in written texts, b) read short sentences on the family aloud for fluency, c) appreciate reading strategies for effective communication.	 The learner is guided to: collaborate with peers to read words aloud in a printed text containing nuun,raa,saad,faa, take-turns to read simple short sentences about immediate family members in a given text, peer review each other's presentation for constructive feedback, work jointly to read texts containing huwa and hiya, work collaboratively to conduct a reading mini-contest for fluency. 	 How can you show love to your family members? How does pronunciation affect fluency in reading?

Core competencies

- Self-efficacy: This is enhanced as the learner shows concerted attention when reading words aloud using various reading strategies.
- Learning to learn: This is inculcated as the learner gives honest input when peer reviewing each other's presentation for constructive feedback.

Values:

- Responsibility: This is promoted as the learner engages in assigned duties when taking turns to read simple short sentences about immediate family members.
- Unity: This is enhanced as the learners combine joint efforts when working collaboratively to conduct a reading minicontest for fluency.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Citizenship: This is addressed as learners accommodate each other as they work in groups to accomplish tasks.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of family to similar concepts as covered in Religious Education.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
2.0 Reading	2.3 Guided Reading: Fluency (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building: colours • Fluency	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify colours of objects from a written text, b) read short familiar texts aloud with fluency, c) use acquired vocabulary in daily communication for language acquisition.	 The learner is guided to: conduct a reader's theatre to read a short text on classroom items, work jointly to identify colours of classroom items from the text, take turns to spell the words related to colours identified from the text, work collaboratively to compose a simple song on various colours to describe classroom objects and present during interclass exhibitions. 	1. Why is it important to read correctly? 2. How do colours make objects unique?

- Communication and collaboration: This is promoted as the learner engages actively when taking turns to spell the words related to colours identified from the text.
- Self-efficacy: This is promoted as the learner effectively orders and prioritises tasks when conducting a reader's theatre to read a short text on classroom items.

Values:

Unity: This is inculcated as the learner displays a team spirit when teaming up with peers to compose a simple song on various colours to describe classroom objects.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Environmental awareness: This is promoted as the learner interacts with various items and identifies colours from their surroundings.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on description using colours to their learning of similar concepts in Creative Arts.

2.0 Reading	2.4 Guided Reading: Fluency (2 sessions) • Reading pace • Vocabulary building: moments of the day and activities • Inferring meaning	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) read simple sentences related to parts of the day at an appropriate pace, a) infer meaning of vocabulary on sequences of the day for comprehension, b) develop interest in reading Arabic texts for enjoyment.	 The learner is guided to: engage in reading short sentences at different paces, work jointly to identify the most appropriate pace for reading texts, team up to make a vocabulary bank on words related to the theme from texts, work with peers to match vocabulary to their meaning, conduct a reading speed game with peers on sentences or tongue twisters related to the theme. 	Why is it important not to read too slowly or too fast?

- Critical thinking and problem solving: This is promoted as the learner explores views to match vocabulary to their meaning.
- Self-efficacy: This is inculcated as the learner conducts a reading speed game with peers on sentences or tongue twisters related to the theme.

Values:

Unity: This is promoted as the learner teams up to make a vocabulary bank on words related to the theme from texts.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Citizenship: This is promoted as the learner works jointly with others to improve on their reading speed for fluency.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept of different reading paces to their learning of fluency in English.

2.0 Reading	2.5 Guided Reading: Vocabulary Building (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building- hobbies and interest • Inferring meaning of vocabulary	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify target vocabulary from a text for information, b) infer meaning of vocabulary for comprehension, c) appreciate vocabulary building for language acquisition.	 The learner is guided to: conduct a reader's theatre on a short text related to the theme, work jointly to identify vocabulary related to the theme, team up with peers to prepare a mind map to outline various words related to the theme, work jointly to identify meaning of the words, practice reading the target words fluently. 	1. How do you spend your free time? 2. How does new vocabulary help in learning Arabic language?

- Communication and collaboration: This is promoted as the learner teams up with peers to prepare a mind map to outline various words related to the theme.
- Self-efficacy: This is promoted as the learner shows concerted attention when conducting a reader's theatre on a short text related to the theme.

- Respect: This is promoted as the learner accommodates diverse opinions when working jointly to identify meaning of the words.
- Unity: This is promoted as the learner cooperates with peers to identify vocabulary related to the theme.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Social cohesion: This is promoted as the learner works jointly with peers to build vocabulary on the theme for language acquisition.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on various activities done as hobbies and interests to their learning in Creative Arts.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
2.0 Reading	2.6 Guided Reading: Fluency (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building: meals • Fluency- reading with expression	By the end of the Sub Strand the learner should be able to: a) identify different foods and drinks taken at different times of the day for comprehension, b) use appropriate expression to read a text for fluency, c) develop interest in reading Arabic texts for enjoyment.	 The learner is guided to: work with peers to create a mind map showing different foods taken at different times of the day (breakfast, lunch, supper/dinner, snacks) work jointly to match pictures of different foods and drinks to their names, read short texts aloud with the appropriate pace, accuracy and expression, peer review each other's reading for constructive feedback. 	1. How do Arabic meals differ from other meals? 2. Why is reading with expression a key aspect in fluency?

- Self-efficacy: This is promoted as the learner shows defining self-expression skills when reading short texts aloud with the appropriate pace, accuracy and expression.
- Learning to learn: This is promoted as the learner engages in collective learning when peer reviewing each other's reading speed for constructive feedback.

Unity: This is promoted as the learner displays a team spirit while working jointly to create a mind map showing different foods taken at different times of the day.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Health Promotion issues: These are addressed as the learners interact with information on various foods and drinks that could be taken at various times for healthy living.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on food and drinks to their learning of similar concepts in Agriculture.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
2.0 Reading	2.7 Reading Comprehension (2 sessions) • Vocabulary building-parts of the body • Comprehension strategy- Direct questions	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) outline vocabulary related to the theme for comprehension, b) respond to direct questions from a text for comprehension, c) develop interest in reading variety of Arabic text for knowledge.	 The learner is guided to: articulate words on various parts of the body clearly and accurately, list the names of parts of the body on flashcards in class, work jointly to respond to direct questions from short texts, match illustrations and names of parts of the body to their functions, engage in reading activities for pleasure and comprehension. 	 Why is reading important? How do direct questions help in understanding a text?

- Critical thinking and problem solving: This is enhanced as the learner follows simple instructions to respond to direct questions from short texts.
- Learning to learn: This is nurtured as the learner builds on their own learning experiences when articulating words on various body parts clearly and accurately.

Responsibility: This is nurtured as the learner exhibits a self- driven attitude when engaging in reading activities for pleasure and comprehension.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Issues of self-awareness: These are addressed as the learner interacts with texts and illustrations on parts of the body for self-awareness on functions of the parts of the body.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner relates the concept about parts of the body to their learning of similar concepts in Science and Technology.

2.0 Reading	2.8 Reading Comprehension (2 sessions) • Comprehension strategies- Prediction • Comprehension strategies- inferential questions	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) predict events from a picture story on weather and environment, b) respond to inferential questions from a text for comprehension, c) read short Arabic texts for enjoyment.	 The learner is guided to: study a picture story related to the theme, collaborate with peers to predict possible events in the story based on the picture details, discuss views from peers on the predictions made, respond to inferential questions from the picture stories, work jointly to prepare creative mosaic patterns on various weather patterns, display their creative works during the interclass exhibitions. 	1. How can we take care of our immediate environment? 2. How can we predict events in a story before reading?

- Learning to learn: This is promoted as the learner engages in collective learning when discussing views from peers on the predictions made.
- Creativity and imagination: This is promoted as the learner embraces creative ideas when preparing creative mosaic patterns on various weather patterns.

Values:

Unity: This is inculcated as the learner displays a team spirit while collaborating with peers to predict possible events in the story based on the picture details.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Safety and security: This is promoted as the learner interacts with information on ways of ensuring safety in different weather conditions.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to link the concept on weather patterns to their learning of similar concepts in Science and Technology.

2.0 Reading	2.9 Extensive Reading: Library Skills (2 sessions) Reading for enjoyment- simple Arabic stories	By the end of the Sub Strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify simple Arabic texts to read for enjoyment, b) track reading progress for lifelong learning, c) develop a positive attitude towards reading.	 team up to identify simple texts to read for enjoyment, collaborate with peers to create an Arabic mini-library for Library sessions, conduct a reader's theatre to read Arabic texts with peers, create a reading log (with details such as title, author, characters, key events) to track and monitor reading progress, team up with peers to hold book club sessions to discuss Arabic stories read. 	1. How can we make reading texts enjoyable?

- Citizenship: This is promoted as the learner accumulates information on various themes when participating in book club sessions to discuss Arabic stories read.
- Learning to learn: This is promoted as the learner engages in collective learning when collaborating with peers to create an Arabic mini-library for Library sessions.

Values:

Unity: This is nurtured as the learner cooperates with peers to identify simple texts to read for enjoyment.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Nationalism: This is addressed as the learner embraces peers and their unique qualities by working together to build a collection of Arabic texts and hold book club sessions to promote a reading culture.

Link to Other Learning Areas:

The learner is able to relate the concept on reading for leisure to their learning in English and Kiswahili.

APPENDIX 1: COMMUNITY SERVICE LEARNING PROJECT FOR UPPER PRIMARY LEVEL

Introduction

At this level, the goal of the CSL activity is to provide linkages between concepts learnt in the various Learning Activities and the real life experiences. Learners begin to make connections between what they learn and the relevance to their daily life. CSL is hosted in the Social studies learning area. The implementation of the CSL activity is a collaborative effort where the class teacher coordinates and works with other subject teachers to design and implement the integrated CSL activity. Though they are teacher-guided, the learners should progressively be given more autonomy to identify problems and come up with solutions. The safety of the learners should also be taken into account when selecting the CSL activity. The following steps for the integrated CSL activity should be staggered across the school terms:

Steps in carrying out the integrated CSL activity

1) Preparation

- Map out the targeted core competencies to be developed, values and specific learning areas skills for the CSL activity
- Identify resources required for the activity (locally available materials)
- Stagger the activities across the term (Set dates and time for the activities)
- Communicate to learners, parents/caregivers/guardians, school administration, teachers and other relevant stakeholders in the school community
- Identify and develop assessment tools

2) Implementation CSL Activity

- Assigning roles to learners.
- Ensure every learner actively participates in the activity
- Observe learners as they carry out the CSL activity and record feedback.
- Use an appropriate assessment tool to assess both the process and the product (Assess learner's work from the beginning to the end product)
- Assess the targeted core competencies to be developed, values and subject skills.

3) Reflection on the CSL Activity

Conduct a self-evaluation session with learners on the integrated CSL activity undertaken by discussing the following:

- what went well and why
- what did not go well and why,
- what can be done differently next time
- what they have learnt.

There will be one integrated CSL activity that will be conducted annually. The thematic areas for the integrated CSL activity will be derived from the broader categories of the PCIs and concepts from the various Learning Areas. Teachers are expected to vary the themes yearly to allow learners to address different PCIs within their contexts. There should be a linkage between the skills from the learning areas and the themes.

The integrated CSL activity will take a Whole School Approach (WSA) where the entire school community is involved (learners, parents/caregivers/guardians, school administration, teachers). Parents/caregivers/guardians are key stakeholders in the planning and execution of the CSL activity. Although the teacher takes the lead role in the planning and integration of the CSL activity, learners will be expected to participate actively in the whole process.

The CSL activity provides an opportunity for the development of core competencies to be developed and the nurturing of various values. The teacher is expected to vary the core competencies to be developed and values emphasised in the activity yearly.

Assessment of the CSL Activity

Assessment of the integrated CSL activity will focus on 3 components namely: skills from various learning areas applied in carrying out the activity, and core competencies to be developed and values demonstrated. Assessment should focus on both the process and end product of the CSL activity. The teacher will assess learners in groups using various tools such as an observation schedule, checklist or rating scale or any other appropriate tool.
